

Reflecting and Responding

CARD 3

That Reminds Me of . . .

Have you ever read a description of a character and thought to yourself that reminds me of (someone you know)? Think about the characters in the book you are reading. Can you find a comparison between a character and someone you know (maybe even yourself)? Describe the character from the book and the person you know who is like that character. Make a list of the similarities between these two people.

Reflecting and Responding

CARD 4

Finding Friends

You have just moved to a new town and need to find new friends. The characters in your book live in your new town. Which character would you like to have as a friend? Explain why.

